Re: United States v. Steven Anderegg
W.D. Case No. 24 cr 50 (jdp)

To the Honorable Stephen L. Crocker,

The defense files this letter brief letting the Court know where things stand with this case and asking that the Court cancel tomorrow's release hearing.

My firm was just retained to represent Mr. Anderegg. The bond hearing is scheduled for tomorrow; unfortunately, I cannot have all my ducks in a row by then. Thus, I would ask that the Court continue tomorrow's bond hearing, and I will notify the Court when the defense is ready to proceed on the issue of release. In addition, Mr. Anderegg can be arraigned at that hearing.

In sum, to save the Court's time and to ensure that Mr. Anderegg can present the most robust and persuasive case for release, the defense respectfully requests that the bond hearing be canceled.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

HURLEY BURISH, S.C.
